Hockey Development

Elite Hockey Training for All Levels

– From Mites to NHL

Meet Coach Alex Vasko

A world-class hockey instructor, Alex Vasko is a highly respected coach and elite player development specialist with a deep-rooted background in the former Soviet Union Hockey Training School.

Born in Kiev, Ukraine, Coach Vasko's training philosophy is built on precision, discipline, and proven development techniques that have produced some of the top hockey players in the world. With years of coaching experience at the highest levels, he has shaped the careers of six NHL draft picks, numerous NCAA Division I and III players, and elite junior-level athletes.

Coach Vasko's track record speaks for itself—he has coached players who have gone on to dominate at the professional and collegiate levels, helping them refine their skills, elevate their game, and reach their full potential.
